Read the following poem and answer questions 10 through 12.

"Spectacles"

My grandma lost her spectacles
And when she went to bed,
I peeped at her and they were there
On top of grandma's head.
I took them gently in my hand
And stood high on my toes.
And then I held my breath real tight
And put them on her nose.
My grandma did not wake at all
She only winked one eye.
And so I guess perhaps she thought
That I was just a fly.

Read the following story and answer questions 14 and 15.

"The Little Fairy's Diary"

This is the story of a little girl, Diya.

She was very fond of yellow things—yellow dress, yellow birds, and yellow sunflowers. Every morning she played with the birds. She told everybody not to hurt her flowers.

One day, Diya's uncle did something terrible. He thought the sunflowers had grown too tall, so he cut off the plants.

When Diya saw her garden, she cried. Diya's parents tried their best to comfort her. Her father gave her a beautiful doll. Her mother got her a yellow dress. Diya did not look at anything. She cried and cried.

Seeing Diya cry, the birds got upset. They went to a garden nearby and asked a mango tree "Do you have a sunflower plant here?" "We don't, but check in the next garden," the tree replied. The birds flew and searched every garden in the city. At last, they found one tiny plant.

The next morning, Diya woke up and found her birds waiting with a sunflower plant. She was overjoyed.
